5. PUBLIC COMMENT FOR ITEMS NOT ON THE AGENDA

(The first period of public comment on items not on the agenda is limited to 20 minutes total, with up to 3 minutes allotted per speaker. Each person may speak once per meeting concerning items not on the agenda. In-person comments take precedence. Sign-up is required and follows a first-come, first-served basis. The second period of public comment on items not on the agenda will follow immediately after the conclusion of all regular business and continue until all comments have been taken.)

6. PUBLIC HEARINGS

(State law and City Council rules set guidelines for inviting community comment in a formal way on certain issues. Following a staff report on each item, the City Council and the Mayor invite community comment. City Council holds a public hearing on the item, a member of council makes a motion, and a vote is taken. The public hearing and vote take place on the same night, unless there is a reason to hold the vote over to a later meeting date.)
